

Privacy Policy for christinamccleary.com

The privacy of our visitors to christinamccleary.com is important to us. At christinamccleary.com, we recognize that privacy of your personal information is important. Here is information on what types of personal information we receive and collect when you use and visit christinamccleary.com, and how we safeguard your information. We never sell your personal information to third parties.

Log Files

As with most other websites, we collect the data contained in log files. However, we do not use the information collected for anything other than site security. The information in the log files includes your IP (internet protocol) address, your ISP (internet service provider, such as AOL or Shaw Cable), the browser you used to visit our site (such as Internet Explorer or Firefox), the time you visited our site and which pages you visited throughout our site.

Cookies and Web Beacons

We do use cookies to store information, such as your personal preferences when you visit our site. This could include only showing you a popup once in your visit, or the ability to login to some of our features, such as the contact form.

We do not use third party advertisements on christinamccleary.com to support our site. You can chose to disable or selectively turn off our cookies or third-party cookies in your browser settings, or by managing preferences in programs such as Norton Internet Security. However, this can affect how you are able to interact with our site as well as other websites. This could include the inability to login to services or programs, such as logging into forums or accounts.
